Dear Parent/Guardian

Here at Archbishop Blanch School, we have high expectations for all children within our school community. We believe that it is our responsibility to help students achieve academic and social success in all areas to maximise their full potential.

Due to staff development, additions to the English staffing and maternity implications, we have changed the timetable to suit the needs of all children in our care to ensure success and attainment for all.

Consequently, there may be some changes to your child's English teacher after Christmas. This is something that you should not be worried about and where possible they will still have the same member of staff.

We can assure you that your child's progress and wellbeing is extremely important to us here at Archbishop Blanch and the class changes will not alter the quality first teaching we offer to all of the pupils within the English department.

However, if you do have any questions or concerns then please do not hesitate to contact Mrs T Hughes, who is the Subject Leader for English.

Yours sincerely

Mrs T Hughes
Subject Leader for English
