Dear Parents/Carers, Governors and Staff

I informed our students this morning that I will shortly be leaving Archbishop Blanch School as Headteacher and taking up the position of Chief Education Officer for Liverpool Local Authority.

The last four years as Headteacher of our wonderful school has been a time that I will always look on fondly. Amongst the external pressures of examination performance, accountability and inspection, Archbishop Blanch has remained and grown as a family school, keeping our Christian values absolutely central to our core vision. Our students have never failed to impress me with their achievements in every sphere and have been a joy to work with.

I would like to thank...

...you as parents and carers, whom without your overwhelming support our young people could not flourish;

...our extremely dedicated and talented team of both support and teaching staff, who really do go the extra mile to ensure our students get the very best;

...Governors who have supported and challenged me through the years in making decisions to ensure that Archbishop Blanch School continues to thrive;

... my Leadership team, my exceptional Deputy Headteacher, Mrs Madeloso and my talented team of Assistant Headteachers who will continue to provide the very best leadership to the students of Archbishop Blanch School.

Mr McFarlane (the Chair of Governors) will write to you shortly with the interim arrangements for the leadership of Archbishop Blanch School and I will continue to keep a close eye on the progress and attainment of our students in my new role, along with that of all Liverpool children.

I wish you all well and look forward to hearing about further achievements of Archbishop Blanch students.

Archbishop Blanch will always have a very special place in my heart!

Yours sincerely

Ms H Duggan
Headteacher
